

Shredding Services

Mission Statement

"Royal Shredding is committed to providing the highest quality information destruction services in a cost effective and timely manner to our clientele."

Through our diligent selection in hiring the best employees, the establishment of company policies that exceed industry guidelines, and adhering to the highest in ethical standards, we will continue to achieve this objective. Royal Shredding will grow with and meet the needs of our clientele by staying abreast of changes in legislation and technology. We will endeavour to provide central locations and control overhead costs to ensure the provision of excellent service at very competitive rates. Royal Shredding is committed to operating in an environment of honesty, openness and integrity. We will attend to our client's information services needs through the provision of professional, secure, and quality service.